

DOING DEBATING DEVELOPMENT WINTER 2012

Restoring the Third Leg of the Sustainability Stool: Ensuring Tangible Social Equity and Community Benefits in Community Development Practice

January 13* - Jeff Loux, UC Davis, A Very Dirty River Runs Through It: Multi-national, Trans-border Remediation of the New River in Calexico/Mexicali

January 18 - Paul Zykofsky, Local Government Commission, Complete Streets and Community Driven Planning: Lessons from the Field

January 25 - Canceled (for CRD department review)

February 1 - James Rojas, Gallery 727, Participatory Urban Design in Economically Challenged Communities

February 8 - TBD

February 15 - Kamaljeet Khaira, California Department of Public Health, Scaling Up - Inspiring Youth, Growing Change

February 22 - Senator Alan Lowenthal, California State Senate (27th District), The Future of Higher Education in California

February 29 - Rachel Iskow, Sacramento I Yolo Mutual Housing Association, Creating Healthy Housing: Affordable Housing and the Impact of Neighborhood Involvement

March 7 - Steve Boilard, State Legislative Analysts Office, Citizen Engagement--and Estrangement--in the State

March 14 - Victor Rubin, PolicyLink, The Advancement of Equity in the Federal Sustainable Communities Initiative: Early Lessons from the Field

when

WED*

location

HUNT 166

time

12 - 1 PM

Lecture series organized by Dr. Jeff Loux, in conjunction with CRD 250, a professional skills development seminar for graduate students in the Community Development Graduate Group.

* The first session of DDD has been rescheduled to Friday, January 13th.

Email Abby Monroe (TA) at armonroe@ucdavis.edu with questions.