

Gail Nickerson, Adventist Health

Mrs. Nickerson has worked in the field of rural health care for twenty-five years, as a health systems consultant and an outpatient clinic administrator. She also has considerable experience working with a variety of nonprofit organizations. Gail is the Chair Elect of the California Mental Health Planning Council and Co-Chair of the California Hospital Association's Hospital-Based Outpatient Clinics Committee. She is also a member of the County Medical Services Program's Benefits and Planning Committee as well as on the faculty of Women's Health Leadership, a program affiliated with the Public Health Institute. Gail currently works as the Director of Clinic Services for Adventist Health in Roseville, CA, providing oversight for over twenty-five Rural Health Clinics in California, Oregon and Washington. She is also the founder of the California Association of RHCs.